Second Preakness Stakes (Gr. I)

Third Hollywood Juvenile (Gr. II)

A SUPERIOR RACE HORSE

- BOLD EGO's emphasis was on speed, evidenced by his September 6 track record breaking victory at Ruidoso, covering the 5½ furlongs in 1:05. He could also carry this speed a distance of ground, winning the Rebel H. (mile and 70 yards) and the Arkansas D. (1¼ miles). On August 14 BOLD EGO ran a 103 speed rating for a mile, finishing second to MYTHICAL RULER in the Governor's H. at Ellis Park. BOLD EGO ran 2/5 off the world record 5½ furlongs 1:02. BOLD EGO ran 3/5 off the track record at Hollywood Park 5 furlongs 56:30.
- This classic placed Grade I winner was a model of consistency, finishing in the money 22 of 33 starts. He met and defeated such top SWs as VODIKA COLLINS ($423,605), TOP AVENGER ($249,821), WOODCHOPPER ($232,163), (Gr. I) TAP SHOES ($463,513), (Gr. I) PROUD APPEAL ($366,286), (Gr. I) WELL DECORATED (455,836).

BRED TO BE A TOP SIRE

- BOLD EGO descends from the world's most fashionable sire line. His sire, BOLD TACTICS, is a stakes placed winner of $156,089 and a son of the immortal BOLD RULER, eight times a leading sire and progenitor of 82 SWs and 11 champions.
- His distaff family is equally impressive. BOLD EGO's first five dams were all producers of SWs. This quality black type family should insure BOLD EGO's future as premier stallion.

SPARKLING MOOLAH

champ hangs it up

Before a Memorial Day crowd of 4200 fans, Sparkling Moolah, the three-year-old son of Sparkling Native out of Tonita Moolah, was retired from racing. Although racing for only a little more than one season, Sparkling Moolah leaves behind an impressive race record. Out of eleven starts, he was off the board only once in his career, scoring eight wins and two seconds with earnings of $162,133.

Owned by Mike Abraham and Jim McClintic, Sparkling Moolah, under the skillful training of Jimmy Jones, lists several important races among his many accomplishments. Here in New Mexico he won the New Mexico Breeders' Futurity at the Downs and the New Mexico State Fair Futurity in Albuquerque. In addition, Sparkling Moolah ran in California, winning the Golden State Futurity Consolation at Los Alamitos and running second in the El Primero Del Ano which is the richest race in the country for Quarter Horse three-year-old colts and geldings.

Sparkling Moolah's owners have received much interest from people wishing to breed their horses to him, so they plan to stand him at stud in 1982 at Rancho De Pena Blanca. Resisting several lucrative offers they had to sell Sparkling Moolah, which would have taken him out of the state, Abraham and McClintic felt that the New Mexico breeding industry could probably benefit by keeping him here. A test breeding was done recently, and the mare is in foal, so Abraham and McClintic are optimistic about next year's breeding season. They have plans to syndicate the horse, hopefully with some flexible terms to allow even the smaller breeders to participate.
