Trained by Juan Carlos Gonzalez and ridden by Carlos Guillen Chacon, Talbott won the ninth of 11 400-yard trials by a half of a length from third-fastest qualifier White Lightenin. The gelding stopped the timer in :19.611 while earning his first win in five starts. Talbott was bred by Mac and Janis Murray's MJ Farms at Veguita, New Mexico, and he was purchased by Camacho as a yearling for $23,000 at last year's New Mexico-Bred Sale at Ruidoso Downs. The gelding is out of Diamondia, a winning daughter of 1994 AQHA champion 2-year-old Mr Jess Perry and a half sister to '07 Rainbow Futurity (G1) winner and All American Futurity (G1) finalist Wild Six.

"Tuffy" Joe Welch

Born July 6, 1907 on a ranch in Eddy County, New Mexico perhaps wasn't the most direct way to success but it didn't hinder Joe Welch. Cowboy, trainer, owner, breeder, and - above all, or along with all of them - a gentleman.

Joe owned Comic Turn (TB) the Irish Thoroughbred who won at Sunland Park, Ruidoso Downs and the New Mexico Fair. He trained King's Kid (TB) who won the New Mexico Futurity at Ruidoso Downs in 1966 which was worth $41,000. His current pride in the Thoroughbred circle is Canestep (TB) by Watch Your Step. He's also been known to train Quarter Horses of some renown as Tony B Deck, Wonderlad, Roan Man and many others.

He has performed before the King and Queen of England and has rubbed elbows with many celebrities, but even so he is still just a pleasant gentleman to all, whether high or low. Known by the industry, respected by it and a credit to it, we salute "Tuffy" Joe Welch.

Doe Bowman

Peter Brock, Centennial's PR man, once said, "Doe Bowman is the type person that songs are written about!"

. . . .and if a song were written, the refrain which would be sung over and again would have to contain the word "LEGEND", for to racing and the horse industry that is what Doe Bowman is.

Doe walked into New Mexico from Arkansas behind a covered wagon when he was only eight years old. When he was 10 he rode his first 'matched' horse race. . .and for the next 73 years he has hardly been more than a furlong away from the sport he adopted so readily and enthusiastically.

Through the years this veteran horseman has actively participated in all facets of racing in the State: jockey, trainer, breeder, owner, with each group now proud to grant him the revered addition of 'emeritus'.

To all the titles and designations he has held, the one which is most contemporary is "historian". . .for within his memory lies New Mexico racing from alpha to the present. . .and his knowledge, if recorded, doubtless would find its way onto the library shelves of all those who claim to be a part of the New Mexico racing scene.

Although his once spry step has now wound down to a tortoise pace and his once keen sight has dimmed, Doe Bowman continues to be an integral part of the horse industry. His familiar figure seen around the tracks in New Mexico is a trademark of the business.

Doe Bowman is mild mannered, humble, and dedicated. He is a typical 'match' race man.

. . . .and, even at 83 years young, he is hard to match!
